

DANCE EDUCATION UPDATE: TEACHING DANCE IN THE 21st CENTURY

A Day Long Dance Education Workshop Presented by the Colorado Dance Alliance

Date & Time: Sunday, September 11, 2011, 9:00 am to 4:30 pm

Content: The workshop will include the following classes & presentations—

- Principles of Choreography -- David Reuille, Artistic Director, Apex Dance Company
- Exploring the New 2009 Dance Standards -- Anne O'Connor, Education & Outreach Director, Colorado Ballet & Athena Baschal, CDA President
- Roots of Hip Hop -- Jacob Mora, Artistic Director, Moraporvida Contemporary Dance
- Using Dance As a Teaching Tool -- Sandra Minton, Professor Emeritus, Dance, University of Northern Colorado & Dance Teacher Littleton Public Schools
- Creative Movement for Children -- Marlene Strang, Director of Curriculum & Instruction, Colorado Ballet
- Cueing for Effective Corrections & Injury Prevention -- Diana Clanin, Director, Dancing Well
- Floor Barre & Yoga for Students -- Catherine Board
- Advocating for the Arts -- Gully Stanford, Director of Partnerships, Colorado Colleges

The day long workshop also includes lunch available with pre-registration, networking opportunities and a resource table.

Location: Colorado Ballet Studios, 1278 Lincoln Street, Denver, 80203

Cost: $70 members & $100 non-members with pre-registration; $80 members & $110 non-members at the door. The pre-registration price deadline is September 6.

Credit: .5 hours of graduate credit is available from Adams State College for an added fee of $30. This fee is paid the morning of the workshop.

Registration: Call or e-mail 303-331-2457, president@codance.org, www.codance.org. You will be sent a registration form which can be mailed to: Colorado Dance Alliance, P.O. Box 9857, Denver, CO. 80209-0857.

